MAHOMETANISM UNVEILED; an Inquiry in which the Arch-Heresy, its Diffusion and Continuance, are examined on a new Principle, tending to confirm the evidences, and aid the propagation of the Christian Faith. By the Rev. Charles Forster, B.D. Chancellor of Ardret, and Examining Chaplain to the Lord Bishop of Limerick. "The reader will find the subject of the Ishmaelitic descent of the Arabian treated in a clear and convincing manner, by Mr. Forster in his learned and valuable work, 'Mahometanism Unveiled.'"—Quarterly Review, No. 63.

"From the novelty of the view which is thus given of Mahometanism, and the ability displayed by the author, we shall be greatly mistaken if a serious discussion of the whole subject be not revived among the learned men of the country."—Monthly Review, Aug. 1829.

London: Printed for James Duncan, 37, Paternoster-row.

In one volume, 8vo. price 9s. boards,

THE AJAX OF SOPHOCLES, illustrated by English Notes. By the Rev. J. R. Pitman, A.M.

The Editor has endeavoured to comprise in the notes the most useful remarks of all the commentators on this play, and has made numerous references to the works of modern critics, by whom the force, either of single words or of idiomatical expressions, has been illustrated.

London: Printed for James Duncan, 37, Paternoster-row.

In two vols. 8vo. price £1. 1s. boards,

A SECOND COURSE OF SERMONS for the YEAR, containing two for each Sunday, and one for each Holiday, abridged from the most eminent Divines of the Established Church, and adapted to the Service of the Day; intended for the use of Families and Schools. Dedicated by permission to the Lord Bishop of London. By the Rev. J. R. Pitman, A.M. alternate Morning Preacher of Belgrave and Berkeley Chapels, and alternate Evening Preacher of the Foundling and Magdalen Hospitals.

"There is no question which the clergy are more frequently asked, and to which they find it more difficult to give a satisfactory reply than this—What Sermons would they recommend for the use of a private family? We really think that Mr. Pitman's work bids fair to supply the deficiency which has been so much regretted."—Quarterly Theological Review.

A Second Edition of the First Course is just published, same price as above.

London: Printed for James Duncan, 37, Paternoster-row.

In 4 vols. 8vo. new edition, with portrait, price £1. 10s. boards.

THE WHOLE WORKS of the Most Reverend Father in God Robert Leighton, D.D. Archbishop of Glasgow. To which is prefixed an entire new Life of the Author. By the Rev. J. N. Pearson, M.A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, and Chaplain to the Most Noble the Marquis of Wexley.

"It is a reproach to the present age that his valuable writings, breathing as they do the sublimest and purest spirit of piety, rich in beautiful images and classical learning, throughout abounding in practical reflections, and all expressed with the sweetest and simplest eloquence, should have been neglected among us."—British Critic, October, 1826.

The above may be had, compressed into 2 vols. £1. 1s. boards.

London: Printed for James Duncan, 37, Paternoster-row. Also may be had, by the same Author,

A PRACTICAL COMMENTARY upon the First Epistle of St. Peter, and other Explanatory Works, 2 vols. 8vo. with a portrait, 18s. boards, or compressed into one volume, 10s. 6d. boards.

In 1 vol. 8vo. price 10s. 6d. boards,

PRACTICAL DISCOURSES; a Selection from the unpublished Manuscripts of the late venerable Thomas Townson, D.D. Archdeacon of Richmond, one of the Rectors of Malpas, Cheshire; and some time Fellow of St. Mary Magdalen College, Oxford. Edited, and with a Biographical Memoir, by John Lord Bishop of Limerick.

"They strike us to be nearly such Sermons as Addison would have composed, had he been a clergyman."—Theological Review, No. X.

London: Printed for James Duncan, 37, Paternoster-row; and John Cochran, 108, Strand.

In the press, and speedily will be published, in 2 vols. 8vo.

PRACTICAL THEOLOGY. By John Lord Bishop of Limerick.

In 30 volumes, with numerous Maps and Engravings, price in boards £8. 5s.

THE MODERN TRAVELLER; a Description, Geographical, Historical, and Topographical, of the various Countries of the Globe. Edited by Josiah Conder.

The various Countries may be had separate, price 3s. 6d. per volume, neatly done up in boards.

"We speak within the most cautious bounds when we say, that in any volume of this work the traveller will find more of the actual material of which he stands in need—the real distinct matter-of-fact information—than in any ten voyages and travels to the same region."—Literary Gazette.

"No work can be found in our language, or any other, equal to supply the place of the Modern Traveller."—Ibid.

"It deserves a place in the library of every inquiring person who desires to become acquainted with the latest state of nations, without the trouble of turning over a multitude of voyages and statistical works, naturally imperfect and partial, and, of course, sometimes contradictory and untrue."—Blackwood's Magazine.

London: Printed for James Duncan, 37, Paternoster-row.

Henry Colburn and Richard Bentley, 8, New Burlington-street, London; and sold by JOHN CUMMING, 16, Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin, and all Booksellers in Ireland.

Selections from Pliny's Natural History, for Schools. This day is published, in 12mo. price 4s. 6d. neatly bound, EXCERPTA EX CAPI PLINII SECUNDI HISTORIA NATURALI, IN USUM SCHOLARUM. Notas adiecti GULIELMUS TURNER. In nova Institutione Novocastrensis Praefector.

Some of the useful objects of this selection from the work of the Elder Pliny, are to supply an agreeable and profitable addition to the books calculated for the higher forms in our public schools, and also for some of the classes in our universities and academical institutions, and at the same time to put into the hands of naturalists in general a portable book of reference to the most important passages in Pliny.

London: Printed for Baldwin and Cradock, Paternoster-row; where may be had, in 18mo. the 7th edition, price 2s. 6d. half-bound.

AN ABSTRACT OF THE HISTORY OF THE BIBLE—to which is added a short Sketch of Scripture Biography and Chronology, with Maps, for the use of Young Persons. By the Rev. William Turner, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

Universal Dictionary of the Latin Language. In two very large volumes, royal 4to. price £6 16s. 6d. in canvas boards, consilio et cura JACOBI FACCIOLATI, opera et studio AEGIDII FORCELLINI Alumni Seminarii Patavini, lucubratur, Edidit: Anglicam interpretationem in locum Italicæ, substituit; appendicem Patavinæ lexico, passim intertextit; pauca de suo, distinctione per obelos facta, hue atque illic sparsit; Auctarium denique et Horatii Tursellini de Particulis Latine Orationis Libellum, etiam Gerrardi Sigliarum Romanum et Gesnerii Indicum Etymologicum adiect Jacobus Bailey, A.M. Regiæ Societatis Literarum Socius.

TOTIUS LATINITATIS LEXICON

In this Edition the Appendix of Joseph Furman has been incorporated, together with some additions by the Editor; neither is the English which has been introduced confined to the Italian passages of the foreign editions, but it has been inserted in other places as well; exceeding the other, as it does, by more than double the amount. A new appendix has been added, consisting of the following articles:—

1. A Supplement of more than Twenty Thousand Words; now first collected by the Editor.
2. Tursellinus's Treatise on the Particles of the Latin Language; the German being turned into English.
3. Gerrard's Sigliarum Romanum; being the most complete explanation extant of the Characters and Letters which occur in the Latin writers, and on the Roman Marbles, Stones, Coins, and other relics of antiquity.
4. Gesner's Etymological Index; in which all the words of the Latin language are arranged under their respective roots.

The merits of the original work are too generally known to need being particularised in an Advertisement; and the effect which has been produced by the present edition upon the prices of the Foreign ones, proves indisputably that no edition of this book, however meritorious in other respects, will ever sell generally in this country, except it be in an English dress.

SATAN, a Poem. By the Author of the "Omnipresence of the Deity."

"Mr. Montgomery has displayed wonderful powers."—Literary Gazette.

"The poem abounds with passages of beauty and sublimity, which have few parallels in modern times."—Greenwich Magazine.

"No conception can be more grand, more truly sublime, than such a being contemplating 'all the kingdoms of the earth, and the glory of them,' looking down on the changes of realm and the chances of time, with the haughtiness of an immortal spirit who know himself superior to such vicissitudes. These feelings Mr. Montgomery has displayed with great power, and with appalling effect."—London University Magazine.
